

Recipient Rights Test

Name: _____

Score: _____ Pass/Fail

Date: _____

1. The rights described in the Michigan Mental health Code are rights to which recipients of mental health services are entitled.
A. True B. False
2. If you think outpatient therapy is necessary for someone you serve and they do not agree, they have the right to appeal/request a second opinion.
A. True B. False
3. A recipient's freedom to go out in the community can be withheld because they have not done their housework.
A. True B. False
4. One way to demonstrate respect for someone is to honor their choices.
A. True B. False
5. It is never OK to reveal confidential information without written consent.
A. True B. False
6. Informed consent does not require that the person's questions be answered.
A. True B. False
7. When in doubt, it is better to be more protective of someone's confidential information.
A. True B. False
8. Threatening someone is an example of Abuse and must be reported to Recipient Rights.
A. True B. False
9. A recipient reporting that they have money missing and accusing staff might be exploitation and must be reported to Recipient Rights.
A. True B. False
10. You are told that one day when a recipient you serve got angry and started throwing things, his mother told staff to keep him from going to the store the next day. Staff kept him from going to the store because his mother said to do that in order for him to learn not to throw things. Staff response is acceptable because this recipient's mother said it was the way to respond.
A. True B. False