Woke fake up at 8am for meds. After taking them, he went back to sleep up at 10:00a. Ate breakfast. He began pouring the table when he realized his housemate was in the bathroom & he needed to use it. Redirected him by engaging him in conversation about his nephew visiting tonight. He stopped pouring. Assisted in bathroom. Fake took his dishes to the sink. Helped him get dressed. Went to dollar store. He picked out Christmas cards. Helped him pay. At home, assisted him to sign the cards with his housemates. Hand over hand assistance w/ shower. Fake put clothes on and zipped and buttoned his pants for him. Ate lunch and watched tv until his nephew came over. Socialized and had dinner. His nephew stayed a couple of hours. Fake in bed about 9:30p.
