

DSP Code of Ethics:

Advocacy: As a DSP, I will advocate with the people I support for justice, inclusion, and full community participation.

Person-Centered Supports: As a DSP, my first allegiance is to the person I support: all other activities and functions I perform flow from this allegiance.

Promoting Physical and Emotional Well-Being: As a DSP, I am responsible for supporting the emotional, physical, and personal well-being of the individuals receiving support. I will encourage growth and recognize the autonomy of the individuals receiving support while being attentive and energetic in reducing their risk of harm.

Integrity and Responsibility: As a DSP, I will support the mission and vitality of my profession to assist people in leading self-directed lives and to foster a spirit of partnership with the people I support, other professionals, and the community.

Confidentiality: As a DSP, I will safeguard and respect the confidentiality and privacy of the people I support.

Justice, Fairness, and Equity: As a DSP, I will promote and practice justice, fairness, and equity for the people I support and the community as a whole. I will affirm the human rights, civil rights, and responsibilities of the people I support.

Respect: As a DSP, I will respect the human dignity and uniqueness of the people I support, I will recognize each person I support as valuable and help others understand their value.

Relationships: As a DSP, I will assist the people I support to develop and maintain relationships.

Self-Determination: As a DSP, I will assist the people I support to direct the course of their own lives.

Nomination Process:

- Complete nomination form and be as thorough as possible in your description. You may nominate as many DSP staff as you like.
- Describe what makes your DSP nominee stand out in the field and deserving of recognition.
- Include a minimum of two stories as examples. Do not use individual consumer names.
- Remember to consider the DSP Code of Ethics when completing the nomination.
