How can the Michigan Behavioral Health Mediation Services program help you with your services?

This program ensures you have access to a neutral, independent mediation professional to resolve matters related to your experience with Community Mental Health (CMH) or Prepaid Inpatient Health Plan (PIHP) services. We'll connect you with your local Community Dispute Resolution Program (CDRP) center that can help you resolve your dispute.

How Much Does It Cost?

It’s free to all parties receiving mental health services from a CMH or PIHP, and paid for through a Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS) grant.

For over 30 years, the Community Dispute Resolution Center Programs have provided conflict resolution and education services that empower community members, families, businesses, courts and schools to resolve conflict. Oakland Mediation Center is an apolitical, non-profit, volunteer-based Community Dispute Resolution Program (CDRP) center whose volunteers represent and serve the community. OMC is the administrator of the state-wide Behavioral Health Mediation Services Program.

What is Mediation?

In mediation, a neutral third party will guide you through a confidential communication, information sharing and decision-making process. The mediator ensures that all parties have a voice and that there is a power balance at the table. If a settlement is reached, the mediators will work with you to assist you in writing an enforceable agreement that is crafted by the parties. You do not lose any of your due process rights (i.e., local appeal, grievance/complaint, etc.) participating in mediation.
